The K.H.S. Band is a versatile organization, composed of four musical groups. In the fall they march at all home football games, and are known as a top-notch marching band.

The concert band, shown here, plays several concerts per year, and attends the annual Little Six Band Festival.

The basketball team is also supported by the band, since all home games are pepped up by the music of the K.H.S. pep band.

The Rhythmairs, the school band, play at school proms and dances in the Tri-State area. The personnel of the band realize no profit from this, as all money earned goes into the band uniform fund.

The 1957 Chiefs posted the most successful record in K.H.S. history. This is the first year that a Keokuk football team has gone undefeated, and the first year since 1937 that K.H.S. has won the Little Six championship. The lone blemish on the 7-0-1 record was a scoreless tie with Ft. Madison. Hanley, Boyd, McQuiston, Mecum, and Helenthal were selected for the all-conference first team; and Lockett, McManus, Ayer, Hasper, Alberts, Prince, Williams, and Huiskamp were awarded honorable mention. McQuiston was named to both the I.D.P.A. and Des Moines Register first all-state teams. Helenthal was picked on the I.D.P.A. third team and the Register second team.

The 1957 football Little Chiefs couldn't seem to get going this year, and they were unable to come out on the long end of the score. However, the team played without the service of five of their best players, who were promoted to the varsity squad. Several of the boys looked good, and should make definite contributions to next year's varsity.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Chiefs fought through a hard season to a 20-4 record. They were nosed out of first place by Muscatine, 50-49, in the deciding game. After winning the Sectional and District tournaments, the boys lost to Davenport, 49-44, in the State. Laubersheimer was selected for the first All-Conference team, and Summers and Hanley were picked for the second squad. Laubersheimer was also selected for the I.D.P.A. Frist and the Des Moines Register third All-State teams. Lockett, Summers, and Hanley received Honorable Mention.

This is the third straight year that the basketball Little Chiefs, coached by Mr. Gowing, have won the Little Six sophomore championship. The team finished with a 15-1 record; the lone defeat coming at the hands of Ottumwa mid-way in the season. Varsity Coach Don Shupe expects several of the boys to play important parts in building next year's varsity squad.

TENNIS

FIRST ROW: C. Miles, R. Hagmaier, S. Lundeen, R. Wear, D. Riley, G. Underwood, B. Summers. SECOND ROW: Coach R. Gowing, P. Gammon, A. Varner, R. Sapp, J. Vermazen, L. Squires, J. Ewing, D. Davis, G. Houston, G. Curnow. THIRD ROW: C. Whitaker, M. Mears, H. Adams, D. Johnson, G. Walker, H. Cunningham, S. Melgaard, E. Johnston, J. Leimer.

The 1958 tennis season should be a very successful one. Last years squad won the Little Six and finished with an 8-3 record. There are several very promising sophomores on the squad, and the returning veterans are going to have to work to stay on the team. This hard inter-squad competition should produce a strong team to defend the conference crown.

GOLF

1st ROW: C. McManus, B. Byers. 2nd ROW: H. Prince, N. Svendsen, P. Dickey, D. Shupe, J. Smith, W. Peterson, A. Wood, F. Ayer, D. Brookland.

The 1958 golf team appears to have good potential. There are several letter winners back, and some of the boys who didn't play as much last spring improved greatly during the summer. There are also several sophomores who will be pushing hard for a spot on the team. With good inter-squad competition, it should be a successful season.

BASEBALL

1st ROW: J. Huiskamp, G. Huiskamp, E. Whitaker, L. Swift, B. Klapprott, R. Boyd, G. Briscoe, L. Lestina, B. Summers, B. Mecum, Bat Boy D. Bramhall. 2nd ROW: L. Wilson, B. Jenkins, M. Woods, J. Lockett, G. Grice, T. Steenberg, A. Azinger, E. McQuiston, W. Welch, J. Dennis, J. Notestein, Coach Shupe.

The prospects for the 1958 baseball season look good. There are eight returning regulars on whom Coach Shupe expects to base the squad. Last year's team finished in third place in the Little Six. With the help of several other veterans and some promising sophomores the team should develop into a real conference contender.

FRONT ROW: B. Bradley, J. Bauswell, J. Claiborne, A. Baker, B. Dougherty, E. Amon, G. Kennedy, Mgr. D. Morgan. BACK ROW: Mgr. G. Risk, Coach J. Lockett, G. Huis-kamp, T. Williams, H. Hanley, D. Littleton, J. Lockett, M. Woods, W. Shoemaker, B. Vermillion, B. Wilson, L. Foster, Mgr. J. Hoffstader, Coach C. Peters.

The 1957 thinclads ended a very successful season during which they won the Little Six Indoor Meet, took third in the State Indoor, second in the Ft. Madison Relays, and fourth and sixth respectively in the Little Six and State Outdoor meets. The individual records are listed under the pictures.

SPRING AND THE COLLEGE PICNIC

The picnic at Lakeside Park and the realization that classes were nearly over brought out the high spirits in even the most inhibited. Due to the extreme exuberance of the players the game occasionally had to be halted until a search uncovered the hidden volleyball.

Mr. Fretwell reaches for a high one.

The two comfortably clad vulcans at the hearth, Bill Kammerer and Dick Odell, throw another log on the fire.

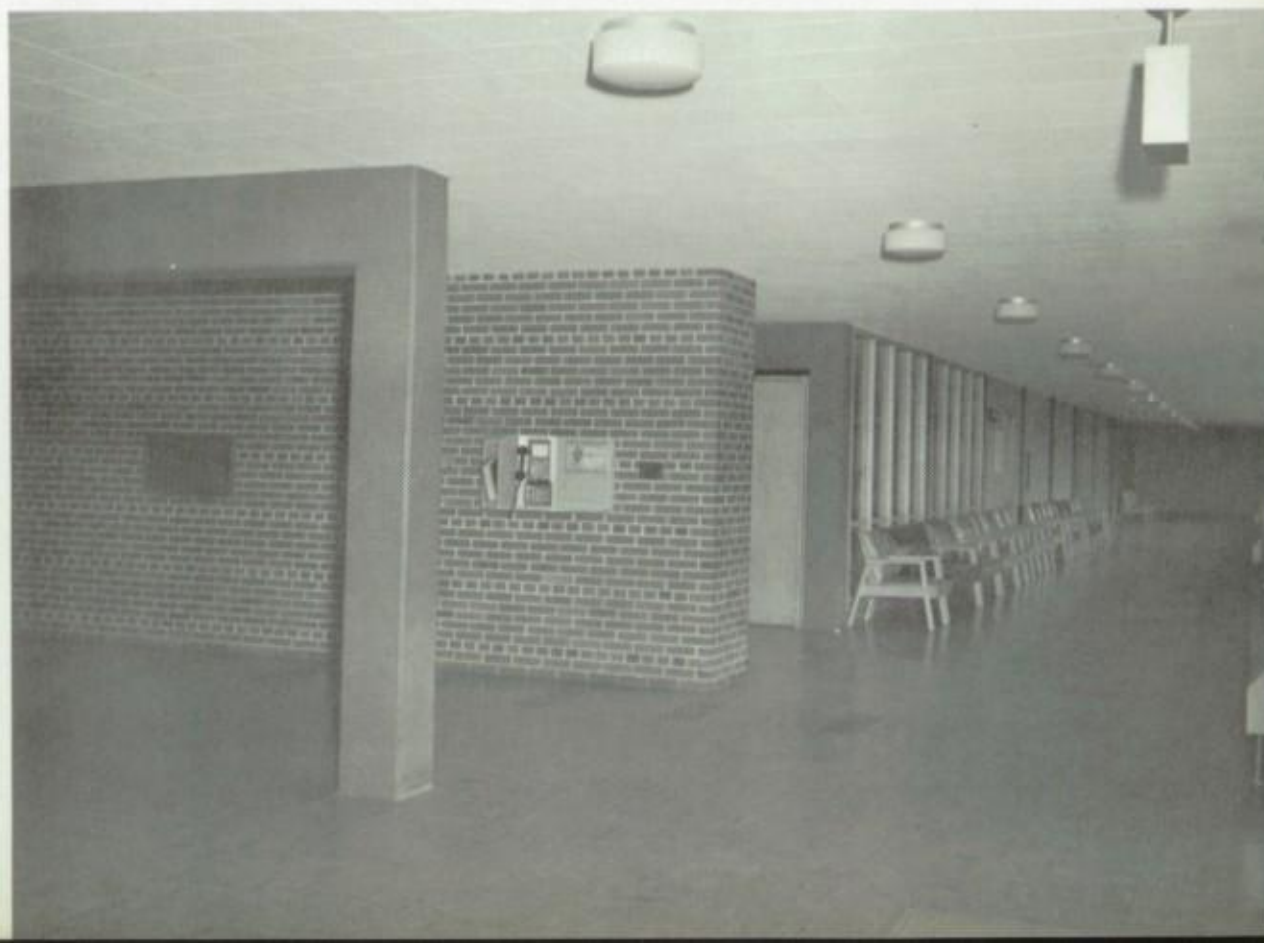

The College banquet brought to a close K.C.C.'s social activities for 1957. After the feast, awards were given. Jerry Krebill, forward for the K.C.C. Komets, is congratulated by Coach Schmadeke. Sally Schevers receives honor pin from Miss Marsh.

Vacation came. The halls and library were still except for the hurried steps of the custodians who were busy scrubbing, painting, waxing and getting all in readiness for the fall semester.

Before we knew it vacation was almost over. Only a few days were left for us to sit on a sunny hill and lazily watch the boats on the broad Mississippi.

The roads leading to vacation spots would soon lead us back to math, comm skills, chemistry and the start of the fall semester. To many of us the winding River Road would become as familiar as the back porch.

THROUGH THE DOOR AND INTO THE MAZE

All that August morning Freshmen diligently placed black marks between blue lines, hoping that they hit the right answer in their placement tests.

After a coke break (compliments of the Sophomores) the Freshmen began final registration. There were tentative schedules to fill out, permanent schedules, class cards, and other forms. There were always the questions, "Which section of chemistry shall I go into?" "Do I have to take an 8 o'clock class?" "I wonder if I can get into drama if I switch from biological science to physical science?" A chat with the advisors helped to clear up conflicts. Sometimes they couldn't answer the questions!

The last table by the door was where Marilyn Inman, secretary to the dean, gently but firmly separated the Freshman from his money. The Freshman was now over the threshold and into the maze of classes and activities.

Tuition is paid - and the Freshman is a student at K.C.C.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

One of the first parties of the year was the Student Board sponsored Halloween Masquerade. Streamers, jack-o'-lanterns replaced the cafeteria tables and chairs.

Above: Rose Mary Meierotto gets ready to hang the pumpkins. In the background Frances Bloom and Barb Peterson ponder the problem of fastening streamers to the twenty-foot ceiling.

Grouped around the huge jack-o'-lantern in the center of the dance floor are the two Chinese, Jim Bauswell and Larry Conner. Behind them is the witch, Judy Mahannah (with mask). Sandy Best keeps monkey Darrell Marsh, on a chain. Spaceman, Steve Berenyi, is behind the lantern. Next to him is hobo, Rose Mary Meierotto; clown, Daryl Smith; and cowgirl, Jill Hellige.

At midnight, the witching hour, the law of gravitation was defied. Monsters, cannibals, clowns, apes, cigarette and cowgirls floated in space.

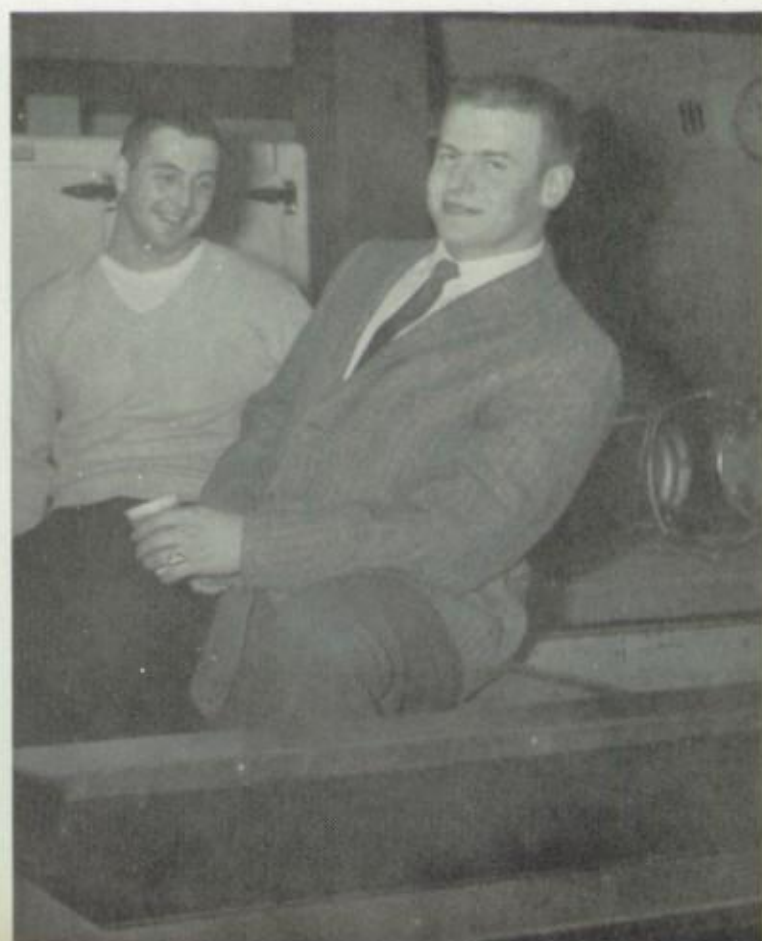

Cider and donuts served to recall the masqueraders to earth. Lined up are Jill Hellige, Rose Mary Meierotto, Sandy Best, Darrell Marsh and Pat Testman.

Homecoming festivities supplied the bright spot in the mid-year social calendar. By popular vote Marilyn Bradley was elected Homecoming Queen. At the homecoming dance on January 31, Queen Marilyn received her crown from Student Board President, Ken Galle. Her attendants, also selected by popular vote, were Frances Bloom, Jackie Glasgow, Judy Mahannah and Judy Pezley. Jerry Krebill received the honor of the first dance with the Queen.

and Queen

After the polls were closed and the ballots were counted for the selection of K.C.C.'s 1958 homecoming queen, The Comet's Tale carried the headlines, "All Hail! Queen Marilyn Reigns!" When Marilyn Bradley heard that she had been elected queen, she exclaimed, "I am so surprised and very, very happy."

During intermission of the annual homecoming dance, Queen Marilyn received her crown from student board president, Ken Galle.

Marilyn, who hails from Argyle, is a member of Student I.S.E.A. She is also a member of the Young Adults Club.

Marilyn keeps very busy with her work at K.C.C. Although at the present she is a telephone operator, she wants to be a kindergarten teacher. Whenever she isn't working, she is a loyal supporter of the college activities.

STUDENT BOARD DIRECTS COLLEGE ACTIVITIES

The Student Board is composed of four officers and four members-at-large. Each officer and member is elected to his post through a college wide campaign and election. The president assumes office in the spring of the year. The other members take office in the fall. It is the duty of the Board to promote and regulate student activities and to be a responsible governing body for the students of the College under the powers granted by the administration.

This year the student Board completed a busy year of well planned activities. The office of president was ably conducted by Ken Galle; The success of the Student Board activities is an indication of the conscientiousness with which he exercised the duties of his office. Dean McKinstry acted in an advisory capacity, but the President and Board assumed the responsibilities involved in planning social activities and making decisions which affected the Student Body.

Standing: Jim Bauswell, Ken Galle, Jerry Krebill, Jackie Glasgow, Don Riley, Don Romes.
Seated: Dean McKinstry, Rosemary Meierotto, Janet Kelly.

Assisting President Galle this year was Jerry Krebill as vice-president, Janet Kelly as secretary, Jackie Glasgow - treasurer. The members-at-large were Rosemary Meierotto, Jim Bauswell, Don Riley and Don Romes.

In keeping with the duties and powers of the Board as stated in the constitution of the Student Government Association, the Student Board granted permission for the formation of the Masquers, a dramatics group.

Informality was the keynote of college social activities planned and sponsored by the Board. In September the Fall Frolic was held at Peters' Grove. This offered an opportunity for the incoming student to become better acquainted with his classmates as well as the continuing students. In October a halloween masquerade was held in the cafeteria. The semi-formal Christmas dance was held on December 28. The theme this year was "Club Holiday." This dance is the oldest traditional affair of the college, and as usual, it was well attended. It was an opportunity for friends and classmates who have moved away to visit with K.C.C. students and faculty members. After a successful homecoming on January 31 during which Queen Marilyn Bradley reigned, the Board turned its attention to planning the annual All-College Picnic at Carthage Lake and the Sophomore Banquet. This brought to a close another year of activity for the Student Board.

THE COMET'S TALE

THE COMET'S TALE, the college newspaper, and the SCARLET, the college yearbook, are both products of the Publication Staff.

Thirteen staff members combine their efforts to produce THE COMET'S TALE every two weeks. The paper began its second year of publication with a brave, new masthead and new make-up. The paper tries to fill the needs of its reading public, the student body of KCC. The Tale was instrumental in sparking the move to redecorate the student lounge; it has also made a concerted effort to urge students to attend college sports and social activities.

On October 12, Editor LaVerne West and Business Manager Carole Vermillion attended the first meeting of the Iowa College Newspaper Conference in Iowa City. THE COMET'S TALE entered the roll of this newly formed organization as a charter member.

SCARLET

The goal of the staff of this 1958 edition of the SCARLET was to produce a book that tells the story of this year at Community College.

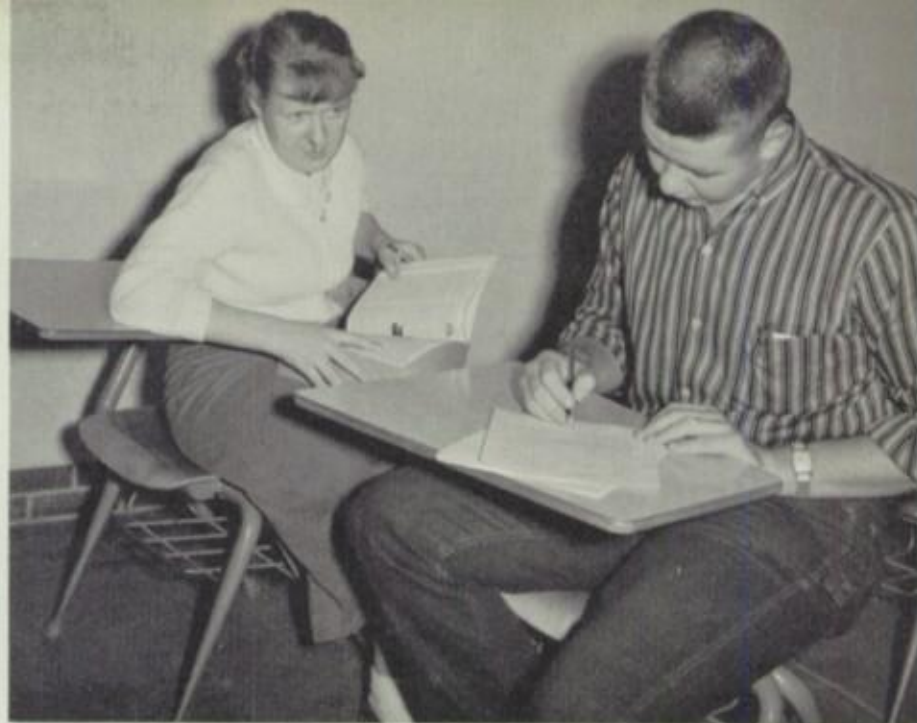

This year saw more progress in producing an individual yearbook for the college. After several weeks of debating over a name, the staff selected SCARLET, discarding contenders for the title such as Puc-e-she-tuc, Kee-shuth, and Mus-kemo-ta.

The constant pressure of deadlines, revisions, and interruptions taxed the staff. Finally in March the last pages left the tired and loving hands of the staff and were delivered to the printer in Hannibal. For the staff this climaxed several months of cutting, arranging and pasting pictures and captions.

On September 7, with the aid of an industrious group of twenty-one, the dramatics department of Community College was formed. Larry Conner was elected president and Carol Russell was elected to the post of secretary-treasurer for the first year.

The first play which the Masquers did was "The Pampered Darling." This play was taken on tour to various high schools in the tri-state area. Late in the spring Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit" was presented at the college for public admission. Throughout the year the Masquers engaged in several activities. One of the most memorable was the trip during Christmas vacation to Chicago to see a touring Broadway production.

A new organization was born this fall - the Student N.E.A. and I.S.E.A. It grew out of the "Future Teachers of America" organization which was chartered three years ago to assist the student in training in his personal and professional growth.

Now as a student member of the National Education Association and the Iowa State Education Association, each member of a college chapter establishes a professional citizenship which he will continue as long as he is a teacher.

Here in the teacher education program, college students study children through books, observation, and actual classroom practice.

ASSISTS THE STUDENT IN TRAINING AND GROWTH

KCC ENTERTAINS FUTURE TEACHERS

Prospective Teacher Day is sponsored by the Iowa Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards. This year forty-one Iowa colleges participated in this project on Wednesday, November 13.

The day was inaugurated to assist students and the public to become aware of the contributions that teachers in their schools make to the welfare of society, and to offer high school students an opportunity to discover what needs to be done to be a professional teacher.

Community College entertained the future teachers of several of the surrounding high schools in the tri-state area. Each member of the college group acted as host or hostess to the guests. The day started with registration and refreshments. In the afternoon four faculty members from Keokuk school system answered questions put to them by four students who represented the total student group.

PAINT AND PIZZA

It looked like a hobo's convention that Friday evening, November 22, at the KCC Student Lounge. However, the Bums weren't preparing to take to the road; they were KCC students dressed in the correct attire to paint the lounge red-and-white. The Student Board had purchased the paint. The willing arms of the KCC Student body supplied the muscle power to get the paint on the walls and each other. After the painting was over, the odor of pizza, hot from the ovens, brought the mob surging up to the homemaking department.

Above: All it needed was the innocent swipe of the brush and the paint fight was on. Denise Schreier charges out from under a ladder to do battle.

CLUB HOLIDAY

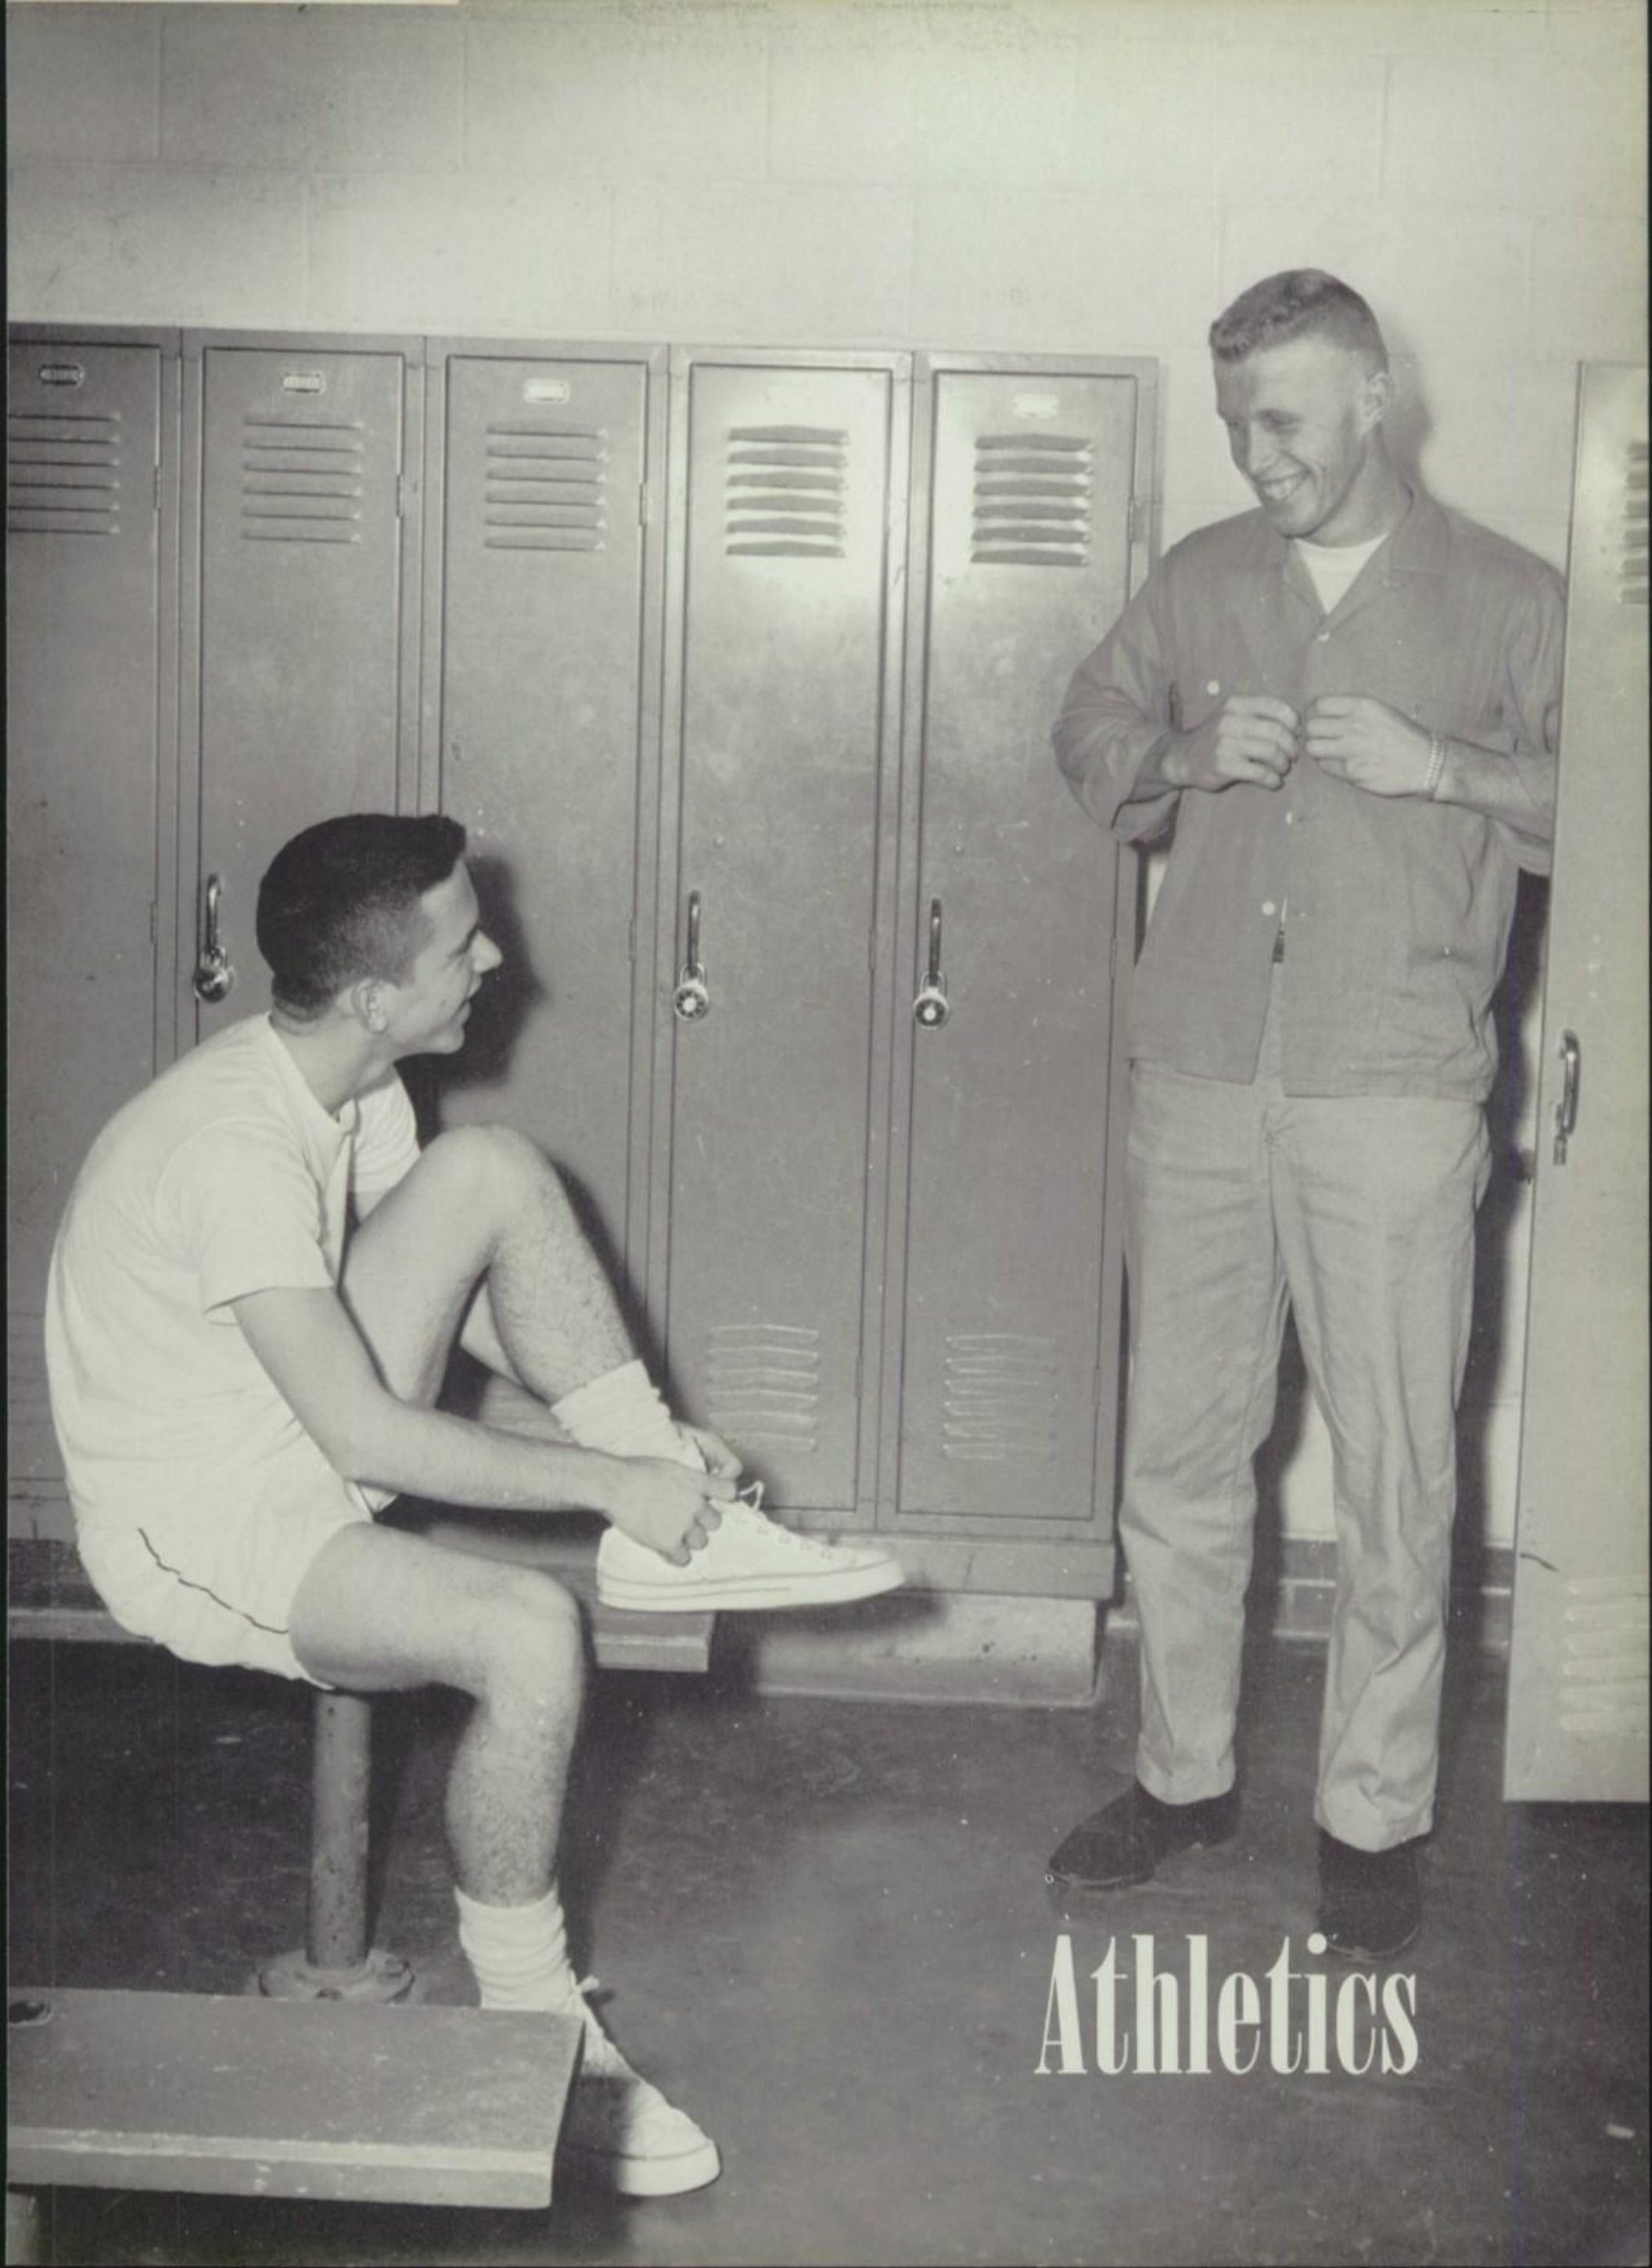

The Christmas season was ushered in amid high spirits and colorful festivities December 28 at the annual Christmas ball. The gaily decorated dining hall at K.C.C. set the scene for Club Holiday.

During intermission Christmas betrothals were announced. The couples were honored by a selection dedicated to them by the band.

The music was provided by The Rhythm Kings.

KEOKUK REIGNS AS

As Coach Lou Schmadeke explained it, "The boys went after the big one, and they got it." The "it" was, of course, the Iowa State Junior College Basketball Championship. The biggest athletic honor to be bestowed on K.C.C. was made a reality on Saturday, February 15, in Webster City when the Komets defeated Grand View College of Des Moines 59-60.

After the game Lou and manager, Gary Briscoe, were carried to the dressing room and given their victory shower. (left)

A happy coach and team returned to K.C.C. with the trophy on Sunday, February 16, to be greeted by a jubilant student body and fans.

COLLEGE CHAMPS

At the reception given to the victorious Komets in Wright Fieldhouse, Don Riley, student board member, accepts the trophy for the College from Coach Lou Schmadeke. Don Romes and Gene Weber were voted the first all-state team.

What does it take to have a state championship basketball team? Poise, hard practice, fighting spirit, confidence in each other and the will to win is the answer. Lou Schmadeke's Komets accomplished the biggest feat in K.C.C.'s history, winning the state crown.

The Komets also finished in a first place tie with Muscatine and Moline in the Mississippi Valley Conference. Selected for the all-conference first team were Don Romes, Ken Galle and Gene Weber. Jerry Krebill, Danny Staggs and Marvin Doyle were placed on the second team.

The Komet cagers ended the season with a 12-1 record in Iowa competition. Don Romes and Gene Weber were placed on the first all-state team. Ken Galle was selected on the second team. This was the greatest year in the basketball ranks for K.C.C., and we hope that it was just the beginning.

SPEAKERS VISIT K. C. C.

Sargon David

Mr. Sargon David spoke to K.C.C. students at an all college assembly on November 12. Mr. David's lecture covered the troubled areas of the Middle East. He is a native of Iraq, and his first hand knowledge of his material made his topic both authoritative and very interesting. Later that morning he answered questions put to him by the World Affairs class.

Mr. David is in the United States on a student's visa. He attended Lincoln Junior College, Lincoln, Illinois. At the present he is attending Culver-Stockton College in Canton, Missouri.

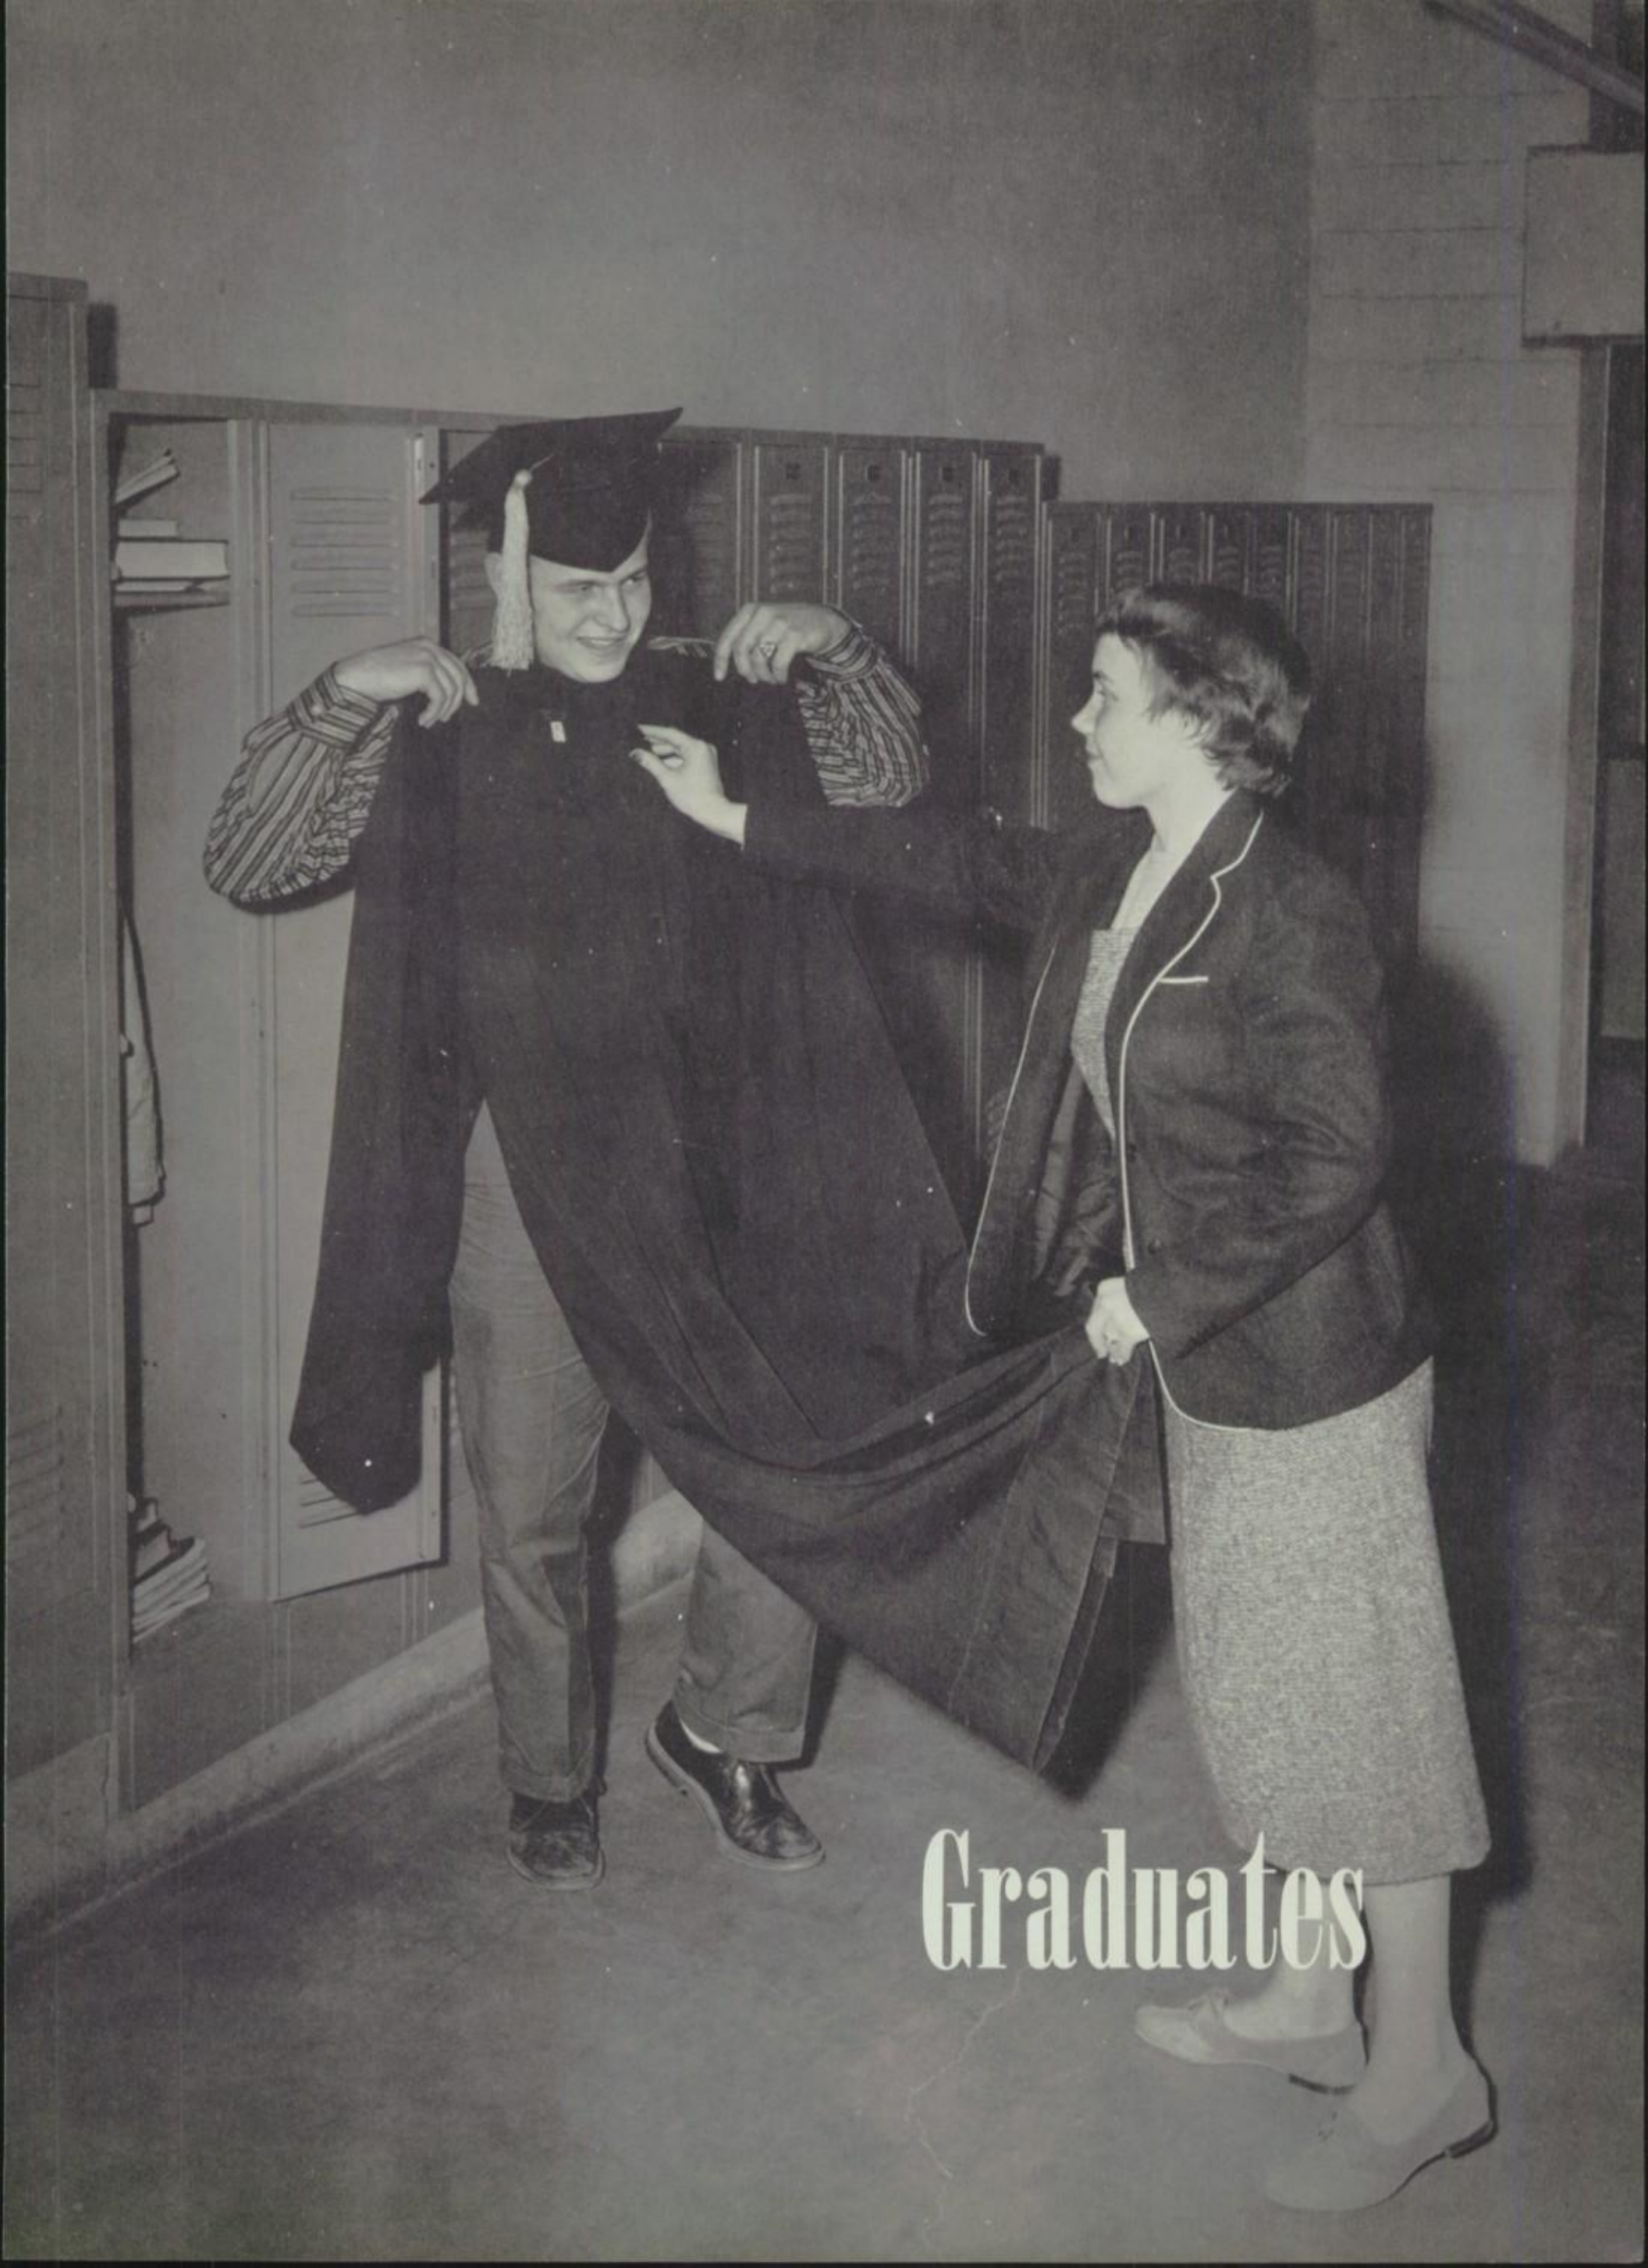

Rowland Myers

At an all college assembly on December 10, the K.C.C. student body heard Dr. Rowland M. Myers speak on "The Romance of Words." That morning Dr. Myers presented a series of ordinary words and showed how they reflected the past history of man on this planet, his activities, his thoughts, his moments of confusion, his hopes and his fears.

He told stories about the origins of words and revealed how they have been formed in the past and are actually being formed today.

According to Dr. Myers, words are like coins; the more they are used, the faster they wear down and change their form and meaning. He predicted that some day everyone in the world will speak the same tongue, using a universal language which will evolve from existing languages.

HONOR STUDENTS

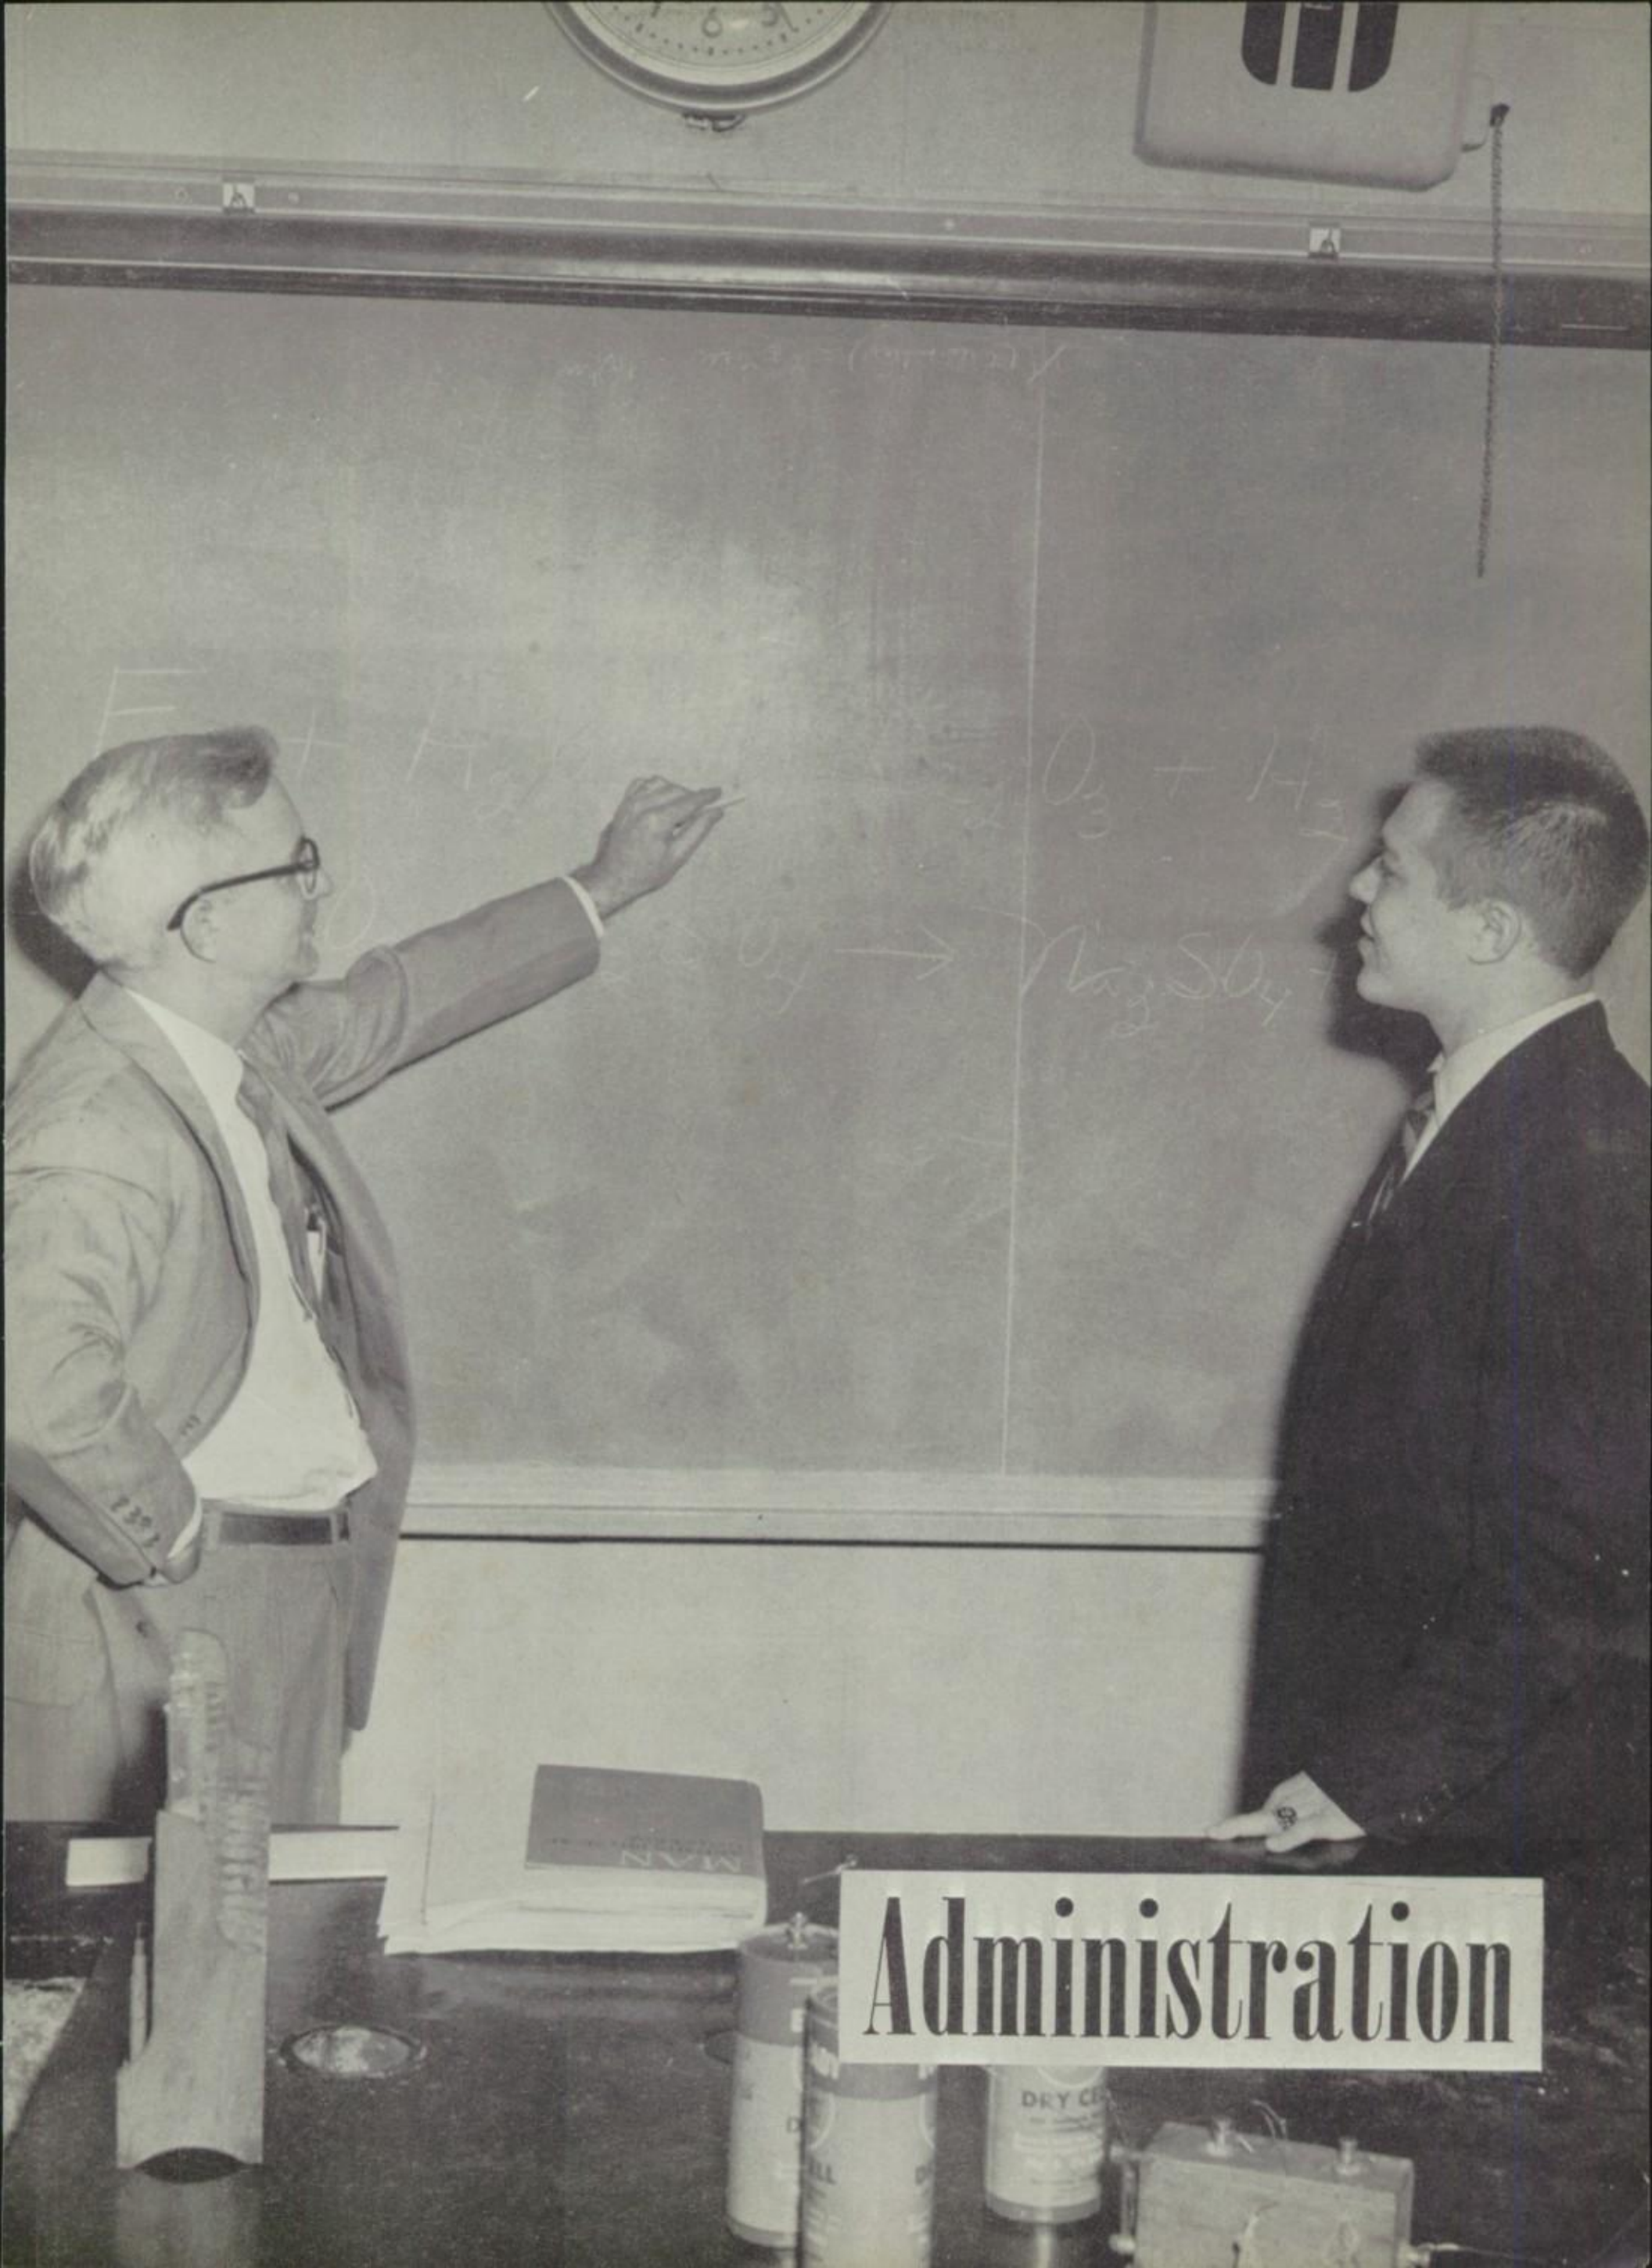

The three students who earned a place on the Iowa Junior College Honor Society this year are Carolyn Gustafson, Mrs. Janet Jones, and Jerry Krebill.

To earn this honor they had to have a 3.25 average for at least three semesters of their two years of K.C.C.

Besides maintaining this high grade average, they participated in many campus activities such as Student I.S.E.A., Student Board, music, Masquers and athletics.

The other sophomores on the Dean's List are Richard Bangert, Marlyn Crown, Leslie Droe, Charles Hinman, Rose Marie Long, Carol Russell, Paul Schaaf, Daryl Smith, Norma Varner, Carole Vermillion and LaVerne West.

These are the freshmen who made the Dean's List for the first semester: Janet Adkisson, Elmer Amon, Jim Bauswell, Steve Berenyi, Iris Crown, Bill Kelly, Bette Krebill, Judy Mahannah, Barbara Peterson, Judy Pezley, Doris Pilkington, Janet Richardson, Gene Weber, and Janet Wheeler. These students truly have a good start in their academic college life.

Administration

DEAN JAMES A. McKINSTRY

Keokuk Community College under Dean McKinstry has steadily progressed since its doors were first opened to students in 1953.

Throughout his professional career Dean McKinstry has kept in close touch with community activities. He is a member of Rotary International and is a member of the board of directors of the Keokuk Little Theatre and the Keokuk Mental Health Center.

On the state level Dean McKinstry is currently serving as treasurer of the Iowa Junior College Association. He is a past officer of the Iowa Guidance Association. In 1957 he was a guest of the U.S. Air Force for a visit to the Air Force proving grounds at Eglin Field, Florida and the Air College at Maxwell Air Base, Alabama.

ROBY E. FRETWELL

Director of the Community College, Roby E. Fretwell, was appointed to his post in January, 1955.
